'Anti-Ragging'

Ragging is one of the most discomforting issues India has been facing for quite some time. It has become more of a rule than an exception in a number of educational institutions throughout the country, leading to a lot of lives being rendered helpless. The aftermath being many, some develop mental disorders, some attempt to end their lives, while many others are murdered by force of ragging. There are many other unearthed stories where student have suffered & endlessly and who haven't had the courage to stand up or speak against such heinous activities.

Not only in educational institutions but also in offices, Army & sport etc also face this social problem. Ragging, Hazing, Fagging, Bullying, Pledging & Horse-playing etc are different terms used in different parts of the world but each signifying the same old practice of welcoming the fresher in a barbaric manner. Although ragging has become a part of the Indian educational system, it surprisingly has a foreign origin. Actually, Ragging means, 'make fun of someone in barbarous manner'. Ragging can be physical, by asking the new entrant to do an act which such student will not, in the ordinary course, do. Secondly, ragging can also be a torture by testing, humiliating

77th Independence Day.

15th August is celebrated as Independence Day of India where the citizens of India feel ecstatic about this day which is India's 77th Independence Day.

On this day, the citizens of our country remember and honour the freedom fighters and the sacrifices. August 15, 1947 is the time when India became a free land.

This day is significant as India began its Independence journey away from the intimidated laborious British Rule and became a democratic sovereign nation.

On this day, the Tricolour is hoisted by PM Narendra Modi at the Red Fort marking India's 77th Independence Day and the National Anthem is recited.

The main theme for this year is "Nation First, Always First", as a part of the larger "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" celebration. PM Modi has introduced the HAR G HAR TRINGA Campaign, encouraging the public to proudly hoist the Tricolour flag on Independence Day.

We all are in the same boat to celebrate the Glory of 77th Independence Day of our country.

Thank You . . . . .
